

Online Media Job Resources by Serena Carpenter

The subheads are used to organize the sites, however you should check all sites because different jobs can fall under any heading. Some sites allow you subscribe to new jobs feeds via RSS, so you can add them to your RSS reader.

Mix of PR and Journalism

1. <http://www.indeed.com/>
job search engine
2. <http://www.startuply.com/>
mix of pr, technical, social media, etc.
3. <http://www.journalismjobs.com/>
4. 30 Sites every freelance should visit and utilize
<http://freelancefolder.com/30-sites-every-freelancer-should-visit-and-utilize/>
5. The Monster List of Freelance Job Sites
6. <http://www.freelanceswitch.com/finding/the-monster-list-of-freelance-job-sites-2009-update/>

Traditional/Online News Media Jobs (some of the sites were provided by Journerdism blog)

1. http://nppa.org/member_services/job_bank/
photographers and videographers must be a member
2. <http://journalists.org/networking/>
online journalism jobs
3. <http://www.snd.org/jobs/jobs>
design, producing,
4. <http://careers.poynter.org/search.cfm>
online, traditional, alternative, intern, sales
5. <http://www.tvjobs.com/>
television, radio
6. <http://www.npr.org/about/jobs/positions.html#Digital%20Media%20Positions>
7. <http://www.journalismnow.com/>
8. <http://www.newsroomjobs.com/>
9. <http://www.mediajobmarket.com/jobs/index.jsp>
10. <http://www.asne.org/index.cfm?id=2> internships
11. <http://jobs.lostremote.com/>
12. <http://www.newsroomjobs.com/>
13. <http://www.aasfe.org/jobs/index.php>
14. <http://jobs.scripps.com/>
15. <http://www.gannett.com/career/>
16. <http://www.tribjobs.com/>
17. <http://www.freedom.com/jobs/?div=1>
18. <http://editorialmatters.lee.net/jobs/>
19. <http://www.mediabistro.com/joblistings/>

PR (some sites were provided by Dawn Gilipin/ASU Professor)

1. <http://entrylevelpr.com/> - Posts internship and early career job opportunities for public relations students and graduates.
2. <http://www.examiner.com/x-828-Entry-Level-Careers-Examiner>

3. <http://www.prweekus.com/Jobs/section/257> best resource
4. http://www.holmesreport.com/agencies/bestagencies_top10.cfm
Holmes Report maintains a listing of the “best” public relations firms to work for.
Check the agencies’ web sites directly
5. <http://careercenter.prfirms.org/search.cfm>
6. <http://www.simplyhired.com/a/jobs/list/o-273>
pr, writing, technical writing
7. <http://www.idealists.org/>

Online Jobs

1. <http://www.krop.com/>
Web design jobs (though you’ll find some copywriting and project management jobs mixed in on occasion)
2. <http://www.centernetworks.com/jobs>
job board has become a great place to find work at web 2.0 companies, especially those in the New York area.
3. http://www.coroflot.com/public/jobs_browse.asp
Designer portfolio site Coroflot runs a popular job board for design, art, and advertising jobs. About 15 new jobs are added every day to the site
4. <http://www.socialmediajobs.com/> This is possibly the best place to look for jobs in the new fields of social media and online community management.
5. <http://jobs.problogger.net/> There is no better place to find paid blogging jobs than the ProBlogger job board.

Freelance

1. <http://www.sitepoint.com/blogs/2008/09/03/15-places-to-sell-your-photos/>
15 places to sell your photos. Make 50 cents to $10 per photo.
2. <http://www.elance.com/p/landing/provider.html>
Great site the connects you to odd jobs
3. <http://getafreelancer.com/>
4. <http://beaguide.about.com/>